To James H Merideth, a fellow citizen of The United States of America,

I as a citizen of The United States of America am white haired and white skinned and born in the middle west.

During the last thirty years or more I have watched what has been happening not only in the United States but also in the whole world in regard to those who have been born with black skins instead of white and because I am a Christian and consider myself a member of Gods Kingdom and because I have accepted Christ as a my personal Lord and Savior I do not discriminate between male or female, Jew or Greek, white black, red or yellow in my human, spiritual, social, or relations to others as neighbors.

In fact my next door neighbors are three elderly colored people (a man and his two sisters). They are as fine neighbors as I have ever had and we neighbor back and forth in every way in which anyone does with a neighbor next door.

In your case I am praying fervently for you that Gods will may be done.

In your case I feel you should be admitted as a student to the University of Mississippi with all the rights and privileges accorded to all the students so long as you conduct yourself as a Christian with a good conscience toward God.

God will supply all your needs if you believe and have faith in Him.

Since my given name doesn't mean anything to the average person I am signing myself as another citizen of the United States of America and may God bless you richly.
